This is a pre-screening gap-catcher, not a pass guarantee. Real audits include worker interviews, payroll verification, and on-site checks this tool cannot fully confirm.

Executive Summary

The provided evidence and documents suggest that Al-Rehman Textiles (Pvt.) Ltd. has some gaps in its wage and overtime records. The Sample Wage Register provides information on wages, overtime hours, and total wage for each employee, but it does not include the calculation of overtime rates. The Attendance & Working Hours Compliance Report provides some information on working hours, but it does not provide detailed information on wages and overtime. The ETI Base Code and amfori BSCI Code of Conduct require employers to maintain accurate records of working hours, wages, and overtime. The company needs to ensure that it is maintaining complete and accurate records of wages, overtime, and working hours to comply with the applicable standards.
